

Leave Policy

Annual leave requests must be approved by the line manager. Employees should review team coverage before requesting leave.

Maternity leave is available according to local law and company benefits. Employees should notify HR as early as possible.

Work-from-home arrangements may be approved for eligible roles. Employees must remain reachable during working hours.